Unforgettable Experience of Playing Ten-pin Bowling, Awa-odori Dance, and the Lifestyle of Iya Deep Forest in Tokushima 4 Days Monitor Tour

Dates Saturday, December 8 – Tuesday, December 11

1 Iya Kazura Bridge

Found in the deep forest, Iya Kazura Bridge is a unique construction made from bundles of arrowroots. In the past, it could easily be cut down in order to prevent enemy invasion. (National Important Tangible Folk Cultural Property)

2 Making Soba Noodles in a Traditional Way

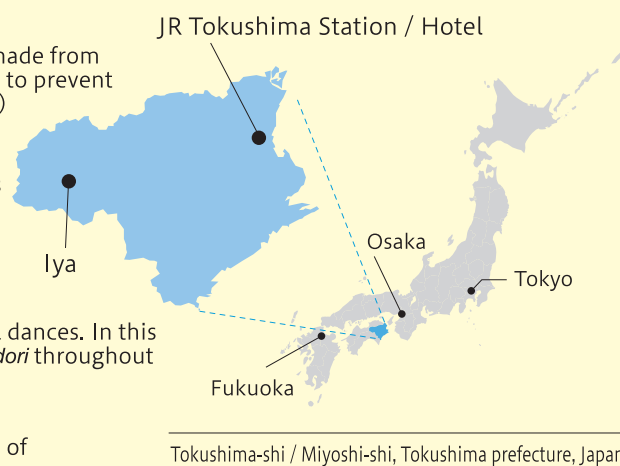

Iya Deep Forest's typical home-made dish "Iya soba noodles." Visitors can learn how to grind grains using a stone mill, knead and shape soba dough into noodles in a traditional way. Taste soba noodles with fresh vegetables from the mountain.

3 Awa-odori Kaikan

With over 400 years of history, Awa-odori represents Japan's traditional dances. In this facility, visitors can either watch dance performances or try out Awa-odori throughout the year.
